

Advancing Faster Payments

From the industry.
With the industry.
For the industry.

Real-time payments, instant transfers, immediate cross-borders transactions...

With the persistent growth, continual introduction of new solutions, and innovations that keep enhancing the usability, reach, and safety of these transactions, faster payments will only continue to advance and proliferate.

That's where we, the U.S. Faster Payments Council (FPC), come in – serving as the membership organization solely focused on leading the efforts to ensure the successful advancement of faster payments.
